"LIBERTY AND UNION—NOW AND FOREVER—ONE AND INSEPARABLE."—Webster.

VOL. 2. QUINCY, PLUMAS COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, MAY 7, 1864. NO. 28.

SOLDIER'S ELEGY.

Ay! leave the Stripes and Stars
Above him; with the precious cap and sash;
The mute mementoes of the battle's crash,
And of a hero's scars.

Rest, gallant soldier, rest!
Ennobled e'en in dying; Christ's true knight
Is now a king, in royal glory bright,
With victor on its crest.

And yet—God giveth sleep;
No earthly victor's laurels ever shed
A glory like a halo round his head.
Ye lovad him—should you weep?

Say ye, "His life is lost; [hope?"
Our home's sweet comfort and our crown of
Nay, friends! His life has now a grander scope,
A living holycaust.

To God, and Truth and Right,
It aye hath been; and if the gleaming coal
On God's own altar hath upborne the soul
In fiery chariot bright.

'Mid battle roar and strife;
If to the fearless soldier God's release
Came swiftly with the seal of perfect peace
Upon his earthly life.

Ay, though it sorely crush [ache
The hearts that clung to him—poor hearts that
With yearning sense of loss—oh, for his sake
Each wail of anguish hush!

A hero-heart is still,
And eyes are sealed, and loving lips are mute,
Which bore on earth the spirit's golden fruit.
But peace! It was God's will.

And for our precious land—
The land he loved and died for in her need.
The blood of heroes is the country's seed.
As he stood, let us stand.

The Lord of hosts doth reign.
He crowned your soldier, "dying at his guns."
Oh be the nation worthy of such sons—
The noble-hearted slain.

GENERAL GRANT AS A STRATEGIST.—The New York Times, in speculating on the new plan of the Southwestern campaign, refers to Grant's bold initiative and broad combinations as almost new in the history of war. After speaking of the cases where we have allowed the enemy to seize the initiative, and thus place us on the defensive, the Times says:

Instead of passively standing still to let the rebels work at their will, mature their plans and marshal their forces, we find him seizing the initiative in a military combination of such colossal proportions and unparalleled boldness as to make it pardonable if neither the public nor the press has yet been able to rise to the hight of its appreciation. For the first time in the history of the war we have the promise, in the coming campaign, of combination on a grand scale. Indeed, it is now for the first time rendered possible, by the union of the several Wertern armies that have hitherto been operating on the independent lines for independent objects, without either correlation of plan or co-operation in execution, under the supreme control of General Grant. It is not to be wondered at that a public whose experience has been restricted to individual and isolated moves should fail to take in a system of operations, in which columns moving from the Mississippi, from the Gulf, from Chattanooga, shall play their respective parts in the grand combination. We have already indicated what we conceive to be the lines of march to be taken up, and the relations of the objective points aimed at by the several armies, and everything thus far fully bears out our speculations. The accomplishment of this plan must divide completely the enemy's force, give us possession of every strategic line in the South, and plant a Union force on every one of the rebel highways of communication. But its very first moves cannot fail to have the effect of utterly disconcerting the plans of the rebel chiefs and defeating their combination. These are among the results that spring from a vigorous seizure of the initiative, and it is this special feature of the opening campaign to which we at present desire to call attention.

THE Rochester Democrat, mentioning a visit of Joseph Leffel, of Springfield, Ohio, to the former city, says: "He is the smallest business man in the world, and indeed quite an atom as compared with General Tom Thumb, Mr. Leffel being only forty-four inches in height, and weighing but fifty-five pounds! Mr. Leffel is now thirty-two years of age. He is an intelligent, able-bodied, handsome-featured man, and sports a moustache that would really do credit to the Scotch giant. He has filled the office of supervisor in Springfield, and is regarded as one of the most public-spirited citizens of that place. He is about to marry Miss Sarah E. Balton, who is smaller than Mrs. Thumb, and was formerly Dolly Dutton's maid of honor.

AN INTERESTING WAR STORY.

In a letter entitled, "Chattanooga Chat," in the Chicago Journal, Benjamin F. Taylor relates the following interesting story of the recent campaign in Tennessee:

"Now and then, a little human smile brightens war's grim visage, like a flash of sunshine in an angry day. I remember one that I wish I could daguerreotype. The amenities of battle are so few, how precious they become! Let me give you that little 'touch of nature that makes the whole world kin.' A few months ago, the Third Ohio, belonging to Sreight's command, entered a town en route for Richmond, prisoners of war. Worn down, famished, hearts heavy and haversacks light, they were herded, 'like dumb, driven cattle,' to wear out the night. A rebel regiment, the Fifty-fourth Virginia, being camped near by, many of its men came strolling about to see the sorry show of poor, snpperless Yankees.

They did not stare long, but hastened away to camp, and came streaming back with coffee kettles, corn bread and bacon—the best they had—and straightway little fires began to twinkle, bacon was suffering the martyrdom of the Saint of the Gridiron, and the aroma of coffee rose like the fragrant cloud of a thank-offering. Loyal guest and rebel hosts were mingled; our hungry boys ate and were satisfied; and for that night our common humanity stood acquitted of the heavy charge of total depravity with which it is blackened. Night and our boys departed together. The prisoners in due time were exchanged, and are now encamped within rifle shot of Kelly's Ferry, on the bank of the Tennessee. But often, around the camp fires, I have heard them talk of the Fifty-fourth Virginia, that proved themselves so immeasurably better 'than a brother afar off;' heard them wonder where they were, and discuss the chance that they might ever meet.

When they denounced the damnable 'Rebs,' the name of one regiment, you may be sure, was tucked away in a snug place, guite out of the range of hard words.

And now comes the sequel that makes a beautiful poem of the whole of it. On the day of the storming of Mission Ridge, among the prisoners was the Fifty-fourth Virginia, and on Friday it trailed away cross the pontoon bridge and along the mountain road, nine miles to Kelly's Ferry. Arrived there, it settled upon the bank, like wasps awaiting the boat. A week elapsed, and your correspondent followed suit.

The Major of the Third Ohio welcomed me to the warm hospitalities of his quarters, and almost the first thing he said was, 'You missed the denouement of the beautiful little drama of ours,' whose first act I have told you. 'Will you believe that the Fifty-fourth Virginia has been here? Some of our boys were on duty at the landing when it arrived. What regiment is this? they asked; and when the reply was given, they started for camp like quarter horses, and shouted, as they rushed in and out among the smoky cones of the Sibley's—the Fifty-fourth Virginia is at the ferry! The camp swarmed in three minutes. Treasures of coffee, bacon, sugar, beef, preserved peaches, everything were turned out in force, and you may believe they went laden with plenty, at the double quick to the Ferry.'

The same old scene, and yet how strangely changed. The twinkling fires, the grateful incense, the hungry captives; but guests and hosts had changed places; the star-lit folds floated aloft for 'bonny blue;' a debt of honor was paid to the uttermost farthing. If they had a triumph of arms at Chattanooga, hearts were trumps at Kelly's Ferry. And there it was that horrid war smiled a human smile, had a grateful, gentle light flickered for a moment on the point of the bayonet. And yet, should the Fifty-fourth Virginia return to-morrow, with arms in their hands, to the Tennessee, the Third Ohio would meet them on the bank, fight them foot to foot, and beat them back with rain so pitiless the river would run red!"

THE WEIGHT OF A "STONE" ENGLISH.—Weighing so many "stone" is often seen in English prints. The weight is thus defined: A stone, horseman's weight, is 14 pounds; of butcher's meat, 8; of iron, 14; of glass, 5; of hemp, 32; of cheese, 16.

QUINCY.

SATURDAY, MAY 7, 1864.

For President, 1864,

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

Subject to the decision of the National Convention.

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

A number of our cotemporaries are expressing their views as to the proper mode of nominating Congressmen, the coming Fall. We have not seen, as yet, any proposition that accords with our views, from any of them, except the general view taken by all, that the nomination be made in District Convention. This mode of nominating, we believe to be correct; in fact, the only proper manner by which the popular will, in the several Districts may be legitimately expressed. But who is to call the Convention? We have no District Committee. We have no precedent to call Convention of our own accord. We have all the machinery of party, and we believe the general rules governing political bodies, should govern in the present case.

The State Central Committee is the managing agent of the party. Its orders, for the sake of unity, are obeyed. It is composed of men from every portion of the State, and we know its deliberations have always been held, with the sole view of advancing the interests of the Union party. Clothed with certain powers, it has its duties to perform; and the principal duty is to preserve the party from becoming fragmentary. Of course, unless the party acknowledges the authority given by it to the Commit tee, there is an end of order and unity in the party.

We believe the proper course is to await the action of the Central Committee, and when it suggests a place and time for holding our District Convention, the delegates will meet under a warrant of anthority, and, being once set in motion, the future course will be clear. We can, when once legally assembled, elect our District Central Committee, and trace our existence, legitimately, back to the Union party and its authorities.

In our opinion, the proper method is this: Let the State Central Committee call District Conventions, to be holden at Sacramento, at about the time the general State Convention is to be holden. Let it select some one of its own members to call the Convention to order, and the whole matter is accomplished, simple, and yet conclusive.

On the score of economy, the several counties will, doubtless, elect their delegates to serve in the double capacity—of representatives in State, as well as District Conventions. This being the case, if the Conventions are holden at three separate places, away from Sacramento, and only a day or two in advance of the time of the State Convention, it may be impossible to get the several bodies together in time; while, if the time is placed a week in advance, it will be too heavy a charge on individual delegates, who would thus be kept away from their business a week or ten days longer than would be necessary.

We object to the meeting of our District Convention, this year, at Marysville, not on our own account, but because of objections we have heard from influential Union men who reside in the counties west of the Sacramento river, and south of the city of Sacramento, who complain that they would be obliged to travel an unnecessary distance to reach the place of Convention. The same objection would for any other year; but we speak now on the assumption that the district delegates will be also members of the State Convention. So far as the general convenience of our District is concerned however, we believe Marysville to be as central as any other town, and after this year will undoubtedly be the place selected as the point of meeting for Congressional Convention in the Third District. And we trust our neighbors there, will not take anything we have said in this article as militating aught against their beautiful city. Our objection goes to the hardships and inconvenience of requiring the delegates from Lake, Napa, Sonoma, and that region, from passing Sacramento and then returning again to that place to attend the State Convention.

That the candidates for Congress shall be nominated in District Convention, we look upon as a certainty; but the time and place of the meeting, we think ought to be left to the discretion of the State Central Committee. They will, no doubt, correspond with each county, and make such a call as will meet the wishes of a majority of the Union party.

CONSOLING.—The yearly income of Sandy Bowers, a lucky owner of feet in Washoe, is $840,000.

LASSEN COUNTY.

Result of the Election.

Union Party en route for Salt River!!

The Election took place on Monday last, and resulted—how?—in the election of the Democratic Ticket, as follows: W. T. C. Elliot, Sheriff; Albert Smith, Clerk. L. Stark, District Attorney. We have no sympathy to offer to the citizens of Lassen county, over the result. If the Union men in that section are so green in political maneuvering, how will they carry on a County government.—The real vote in that county is at least three to one in favor of the Union party, but jealousy, "sore-headedness on the cranium," or some other fatal malady, bursted the party, and now, the result. Experience is a dear lesson. Rule or ruin as a motto, works but poorly, but as they have made their bed, let them lay in it. Let it be heralded forth, "Another Rebel Victory!" Let the Democratic Press and Marysville Express come out with flying colors. Victory perches upon their banners. Sound the tocsin, beat the hew-gag! Let Union men (in Lassen county,) clothe themselves in sackcloth, (never mind the ashes!) for with them rests the honor and the glory!

Susanville received a majority of 104 votes over Jaynesville for County Seat. I. J. Harvey, Esq., has received his commission as County Judge. We publish the Lassen County Bill in full, on the first page of this paper. "So mote it be."

SATURDAY, 10, A. M.

We are informed by a gentlemen just arrived in town from the County of Lassen, that J. D. Byers, Esq., was elected Sheriff by a majority of 35 votes over Elliott. If such is the case, it takes considerable of the "gall" from the feelings of Union men. In fact, had we time before going to press, we would set our rooster right side up, but then, thirty-five majority ain't much to brag of, after all.

We will publish the full vote for each candidate, when the official returns are announced.

A SERIOUS AFFAIR.

We are compelled once again, in our capacity as a journalist, to record for the information of the public, another instance of moral depravity in that circle of society where it might be the least expected. The accused are parties who have heretofore occupied high judicial, military and social positions in California, one of them at least is well known in Plumas county. The parties after being arrested, plead guilty of gobbling up and secreting a great quantity of the genuine invaluable material, and were held to answer by the Justice in the sum of $10,000. J. K. Lovejoy and Ike Bateman, of this city, gave bonds for their appearance in the required sum. The following is the complaint, which sets forth the grave charge on which the parties were arrested:

TERRITORY OF NEVADA, } COUNTY OF STOREY. }

In Justice Court, Virginia Precinct.—People vs. His Honor, E. T. Hogan, et al. To any Sheriff or Constable—Greeting:

A complaint upon oath having this day been made before me by E. T. Morton, that the crime of grand larceny has been committed, and accusing Judge E. T. Hogan and Captain J. O'Neil thereof, you are therefore commanded to forthwith arrest the above named culprits and bring them forthwith before me, at my office in Virginia.

{ U. S. Inter. Rev. } J. W. CULLEN, J. P.
{ Stamp of 3 cts. } Virginia Precinct.

The fact of the business is, that a lot of waggish rascals, and old friends of the Judge, played him for an "emigrant." The Judge "gin a treat," after coming out of the station-house.

Rev. Geo. Birdsall was the active and efficient officer, who asked the Judge if he wore his spec's for disguise—or what? The Judge replied that he was near-sighted; and to cap the climax of the "sell," Jack Perry informed him that he recognized him as a confederate of Shotwell's. The Judge indignantly denied the soft impeachment.

The above article we clip from the Old Pi Ute, of Virginia City. We presume that it is one of Lovejoy's sells, for it could not be possible that the gents mentioned could be guilty of any very grand "larceny," while on their visit to Washoe. As for the disguise, we doubt whether the Judge ever disguises himself. At least it is perfectly plain to our citizens that he does not. Such a thing is impossible.

THE bayonet's invitation—come to the point.

LETTER FROM "BRAD."

SAN FRANCISCO, May 2, 1864.

DEAR UNION:—There were eighty members of the last Assembly. Sears, of Nevada, Speaker; and as Wheeler, the Clerk, would call the names in the morning, something could be gleaned from the tone of the answer, as to the nature of the man—some would speak out quickly, others, gruffly—some, pleasantly, and others would answer with a grunt. Some would show the effect of a hard fought fight with "a tiger" the night before, and bury their faces behind the morning's Union; others, with clean-shaved faces and tape line collars, would look fresh as a daisy, and clear as a tankard of Gruhler's German nectar.

Of the Members of the Assembly, Brad has already given his opinion, as to who was first; that his choice was correct, is a conceded fact. He has also placed the Speaker, second in point of intellect. Now, as to the thirdly, it is hard to choose. Dodson was shrewd, Tukey, sharp, Ramon Hill, rich, Kewen, flowery, (but sadly faded), Owen, honest, Wilcox, bluff—, and Wiley, cautious. But none of these possess the elements of combination, to a sufficient extent to place them along side of Thompson Campbell, or even thirdly to him.

Brad has seen the operations of three or four legislatures, and is free to acknowledge, that the present one had as little real intellect in it, as any within his knowledge. The Members were, in general, honest, as honesty goes now-a-days, and doubtless, intended to serve their constituency to the best of their ability; and no one blames them for not having that, which Omnipotence can alone confer. (I speak now of the Assembly).

A wide, level reach of country, such as spreads west from Chicago, in which nothing natural is met to relieve the eye, is a fair simile of the Assembly. Take out Campbell and Sears, and (give the devil his due) perhaps, Kewen, and the balance are no higher than "gopher knolls." No intellects, that are grand, no brain that is comprehensive, but like the pleasant door-yards and fruitful fields of that prairie counnry, it is only pleasant through cultivation and art.

"They have gone from our gaze." The most of them will never be heard from again, unless one term shall pnff them into the belief, that they ought to go to Congress or some other equally honest place. Nathless, in after years, when the frosts of age shall silver their locks with white, they will be enabled to instill into the ears of their prattling grand-children, that in 1864, of the Christian Era, "We were in the legislature of California;" and smile over the huge efforts, made by them, to have the name of Senacherib Wilhelminaflousky-bub changed to John Smith; or with what adroit shrewdness they out-witted the opponents of a bill entitled, "An Act to change the place of business of the Lightning Express Company." In that elder age, their lips will grow moist over the memory of delicious little game suppers at the Antelope, or the more stately re-unions at the head-quarters of the Governor. It will be pleasant to them, to remember that they did their duty to their constituents, and drew their pay like little men.

And so, Dear UNION, Brad draws the curtain over the late Assembly. Quietly they came, and they have returned to their several homes, rich—in honors, drunk with ambition and——lager, and may their last end be like their legislative acts, harmless, is the wish of one, who has received no harm at their hands.

When the curtain goes up again, and the "rag is hoisted" to witness the play of the forty—Senators, a ray, now and then, of brilliancy may reward the visitor. Until that time comes,

"Adios," BRAD.

UNION-ISM.—To show how impossible it is for a person to be a Union man, when all his affinities are with copperheads, we notice the remarks made by such Unionists on the arrival of every mail: Banks meets with a reverse; therefore, these Union men say, "Banks is a pretty good politician, but he can't fight; he is from that d—d abolition State, Massachusetts." Another chimes in and says, "I am as good a Union man as ever walked, but d—n the abolition thieves who are now trying to subjugate my section. They can't do it; they can't do it." No—perhaps not, but they will try to, at anyrate.

GENEROSITY.—The Marysville Appeal, Sac. Union, Sac. Bee, S. F. Journal, American Flag, Nevada Gazette, and the Old Pinte, all send Dailies in exchange.

SELFISHNESS.—The S. F. Alta, Dem. Press, S. F. Bulletin and Marysville Express are too miserly, mean, and selfish to exchange with a mountain county paper. We don't care a continental d—n for their papers. Don't want them; but just to show the animus of the "critters," we give our readers the two lists, and they can form their own opinions. We have ours.

NEW LAWS.—The Jury Law, as amended, does not take effect in this county, until the 1st day of June, 1864. The following laws we find in the Sac. Union. If that paper did not publish the acts of the Legislature, it would be a long time after laws were passed before the citizens of the State would know what laws were in existence.

AN ACT to fix the Time of holding the District Court in the Second Judicial District.

Provides for holding terms of said in Butte county on the second Monday of March, fourtn Monday of July and second Monday of December; in Tehama—second Monday of February, fourth Monday of June and second Monday of November; in Plumas—second Monday of May, and fourth Monday of September; in Lassen—first Monday of June and second Monday of October.

Approved April 4th, 1864.

AN ACT to provide for the election of Supervisors in certain Counties in this State.

[In the counties of Sonoma, Eldorado, Santa Barbara, San Luis Obispo, Santa Cruz, Monterey, Shasta, Trinity, Colusa, Siskiyou, Fresno, San Joaquin, Mendicino, Plumas, Lassen, Solano and Mono, there shall be elected annually one member of the Board of Supervisors, whose term of office shall be three years, and until his successor is elected and qualified. Such Supervisors shall be elected at the general election for State and county officers, and in the years in which there are no general election, at the elections to be held for members of Congress. The Supervisors elected in said counties in 1863, shall continue in office for three years from the date of their election and qualification, and until their successors are elected and qualified.]

Approved April 4, 1864.

☞ Our space is taken up this week by publication of the law creating Lassen county, and the proceedings of the Board of Supervisors. This leaves but little room for other original matter.

MISSING.—From the office file, No. 20 and 21, dated April 23d and 30th, 1863, of the QUINCY UNION. If any of our friends have the missing numbers, they will confer a favor by forwarding them to us.

AN Irishman being requested to define hard drink, said, "it was sitting on a rock, and sipping cold water."—Ex.

We should call that cold comfort. The result of the election in Lassen county, must be nearly the same to the Union men in that section, as hard drinking was to the Irishman.

COMPLIMENTARY.—In looking over the report of the Grand Jury of Sierra county, as published in the Messenger, we find the following true and very complimentary notice of Associate Judges:

"While in the court room we paused to congratulate the Court on having got rid of those ornamental pay drones, the Associate Judges."

THE Western Sun, at Vincennes, Indiana, is one of the dirtiest Copperheads in the Union—which is saying a great deal.—Flag.

That is complimentary to the Express and Press.

BETWEEN one and two hundred foreigners, employed in the various gangs in the navy yard, at Charlestown, Mass., have been discharged recently, for neglecting to become naturalized citizens of the United States.—Ex

A move in the right direction. Let it be followed up.

"IT seems to me that with many young men, the most approved method of winding up the nihgt, is reeling it home."

LIST OF LEITERS REMAINING IN THE Quincy Post Office, May 1, 1864.

If not called for, previous to the First day of June, will be sent to the Dead Letter Office.

LOCAL ITEMS.

DISTRICT COURT.—The regular term of District Court will commence next Monday.

CORONER.—J. S. Root Esq., has been appointed Coroner of Plumas county.

DUTCH HILL.—Several of the claims at this place are paying as high as $20 per day to the hand.

SNOW.—Twelve inches of snow fell in this valley on Thursday last, but it had nearly all disappeared on Friday morning.

FOR THE STATES.—J. S. French Esq., and sev- others of our old citizens intend leaving for the Atlantic States in a few days.

FOR BOISE.—Messrs. J. R. Lockwood and A. J. Wood, of Humbug Valley, both old citizens of our county, left for the Boise River mines last week.

IN TOWN.—Creed Haymond Esq., of Sierra county, arrived in town yesterday. Mr. H. is interested as an Attorney in several important suits before our District Court.

EVADING IT.—Several of our Foreign born inhabitants find the $4 tax too heavy to stand, and are taking out their first papers to get rid of paying the tax.

FENCING.—The farmers in Sierra Valley are busily engaged in building fences to inclose their lands. The hay crops, in that valley, will be rather light this year.

REVENUE.—Nine hundred Foreign Mining Licenses were sold during the month of April. The Chinamen are of some account to the creditors of the county; but a nuisance to the rest of mankind.

ROADS.—For the benefit of Road Overseers, Road Tax Collectors, and our citizens generally, we will publish the road law, relating to Plumas county, next week.

QUARTZ.—Messrs. Bidwell & Co.'s mill in Dixie Ravine has been running for the past three weeks. They are crushing rock, taken from the Excelsior ledge, and it is paying from $13 to $17 per ton.

DELINQUENTS.—As will be seen by reference to the proceedings of the Board of Supervisors, the District Attorney is authorized to commence suits against all persons who are doing business in the county without a license. Watch out!

QUALIFY.—If the Road Overseers and Tax Collectors, appointed by the Board of Supervisors, will qualify and then discharge the duties of their offices according to law, there will be no excuse for poor roads in the county.

NEW MILL.—The Key Stone Company, at Argentine, has purchased the stamps, battery, &c., formerly used at Hartwell's mill in this valley, and intends using them in a mill, now being built by the company. They will have it in running order in a short time.

MINES WORKED OUT!—The Union Company at Saw Pit Flat, on Saturday last, washed up SIXTY-FIVE POUNDS of gold, amounting to $13,650. Pretty good for the played out mines of Plumas county!

ECLIPSE.—The sun had some of its shine taken from it, on Thursday afternoon, by the moon, or some other jealous planet, trying to "douse its glim." From appearances, old Sol made it too hot for the interloper, and caused it to "git up and git."

SCRIP.—Warrants on the County General Fund, drawn previous to October 1, 1862, will be paid by presenting them to the County Treasurer, S. J. Clark, at his office. Plumas has no funded indebtedness, and when County Scrip is redeemable seventeen months after it is issued, argues well for the financial condition of the county.

STRUCK IT BIG.—Messrs. Urie & Co., the owners of one of the tunnel claims at Saw Pit Flat, after running a bed rock tunnel the distance of four hundred feet, struck through into the basin, and found very rich gravel. It prospects equal, if not better than the dirt in the Union claims. Several other companies will complete their tunnels in a short time. From appearances, Washington Hill will make every one in that section rich as need be.

MAIL ROUTES.—From a private letter, received by one of our citizens a few days since, we learn that the Post Master General will, on the 1st day of July, order an extension of the Mail Route between Quincy and Susanville.

Messrs. Walsh & Spaulding, of Washoe city, have received the contract for carrying the Mails between Virginia city and Susanville. Price, $3,650 per year.

WAR BILLS.—The Board of Supervisors took no action in regard to the expenses incurred in the "sage brush war" last year. The State, by rights, should foot the the bills. If not, the county should satisfy the claims of those who furnished goods, provisions, &c., under the orders of the Sheriff, and for all the actual expenses incurred. The Legislature, had it examined the merits of the case, could never, in justice, have refused to pass the bill for the payment of those claims. Wait a little longer.

PROBATE COURT.—Letters of administration have been issued to J. H. Houck, on the estate of T. C. Purdom, deceased. The hearing of the petition of W. N. DeHaven and S. O. Hughes, praying to be appointed Executors, as per will of G. W. Miner deceased, of said estate, set for hearing on the 16th instant. The petition of N. Stampfli, praying for an order to sell the personal property of the estate of F. Frollick, deceased, filed, and the hearing set for the 11th instant. In the matter of the estate of A. Grimaux, deceased, a decree, confirming the sales of the personal property by the Administrator of said estate, entered.

COUNTY COURT.—The May term of our County Court disposed of the cases upon the docket as follows:

The People vs. A. B Clark.	Appeal from Justice's Court. Continued.
E. C. Smith, Adm'r vs. A. Carmon.	Appeal from Justice's Court. Cont'd for the term.
M. Priddy vs. His Creditors.	Petition in insolv'y. Final decree of discharge entered.
T. Montgomery vs. Spaulding et al	Forcible entry. Dism'd at P'lf's costs without prejudice.
E. V. Spencer vs. His Creditors	Petition in insolv'y.

Petitioner allowed 30 days to answer opposition of creditors, and the case transferred to Lassen county for final hearing.

The Medical and Surgical Institute of Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY, is already secured in a position which places it, as well as the proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of Medical Science, and they occupy with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Ricord is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country; as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary adeundem degree. Selecting this as his field of operations, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as a matter of interest to their patrons in the most exclusive journals. The Dootor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Co.

NO FICTION, BUT TRUTH.

It is customary to speak of many remedies of the day in a light and frivolous manner, and this may answer where the case to be cured is of a trifling character, and the remedy presented simple. But when we are called to prescribe for diseases endured only with excrutiating pain—whose termination is often fatal, we leave jesting, and proceed with earnestness to utter facts that will perhaps rescue a fellow being from a bed of sickness or the grave. It is thus that we would introduce to our readers SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP, and state that for the cure of humors there is nothing in the world can equal this popular and extensively used medicine. THE OFFICER'S RIDE.

During the Revolutionary War, when a corps of the American army was encamped near the borough of Elizabethtown, New Jersey, an officer, who by the way, was more a devotee of Venus than Mars, paid his addresses to a lady of distinction, whom he was in the habit of visiting nightly. On a discovery of the repeated absence of the officer, and of the place where interviews with his dulcinea were had, some waggish friends resolved to play a handsome trick at his expense, which should deter him from a repetition of his visits.

The officer, it appears, rode a very small horse of the pony kind, which he left untied with the bridle reins over his neck, near the door, in order to mount and ride off without delay, when the business of courting and kissing was over; and the horse always remained until backed by the owner, without attempting to change his position.

On a certain dark and gloomy night when the officer had, as usual, gone to pay his devotions to the object of his dearest affections, and was enjoying the approving smiles of the lovely fair one, his waggish companions went privately to the door of the house where the officer was, took his bridle and saddle from the horse, which they sent away, placed the bridle on the tail and the saddle on the back, and the crupper over the horns of a quiet old cow, who stood peaceably chewing her cud, near the spot.

Immediately thereafter they retired some distance from the house, and separating, raised the loud cry of alarm that the enemy had landed and were marching into the village.

Our hero, on hearing this, took counsel from his fears, and snatching a hasty kiss, he shot out of the door with the velocity of a musket ball, and mounted into the saddle with his back toward the head of the head of the cow, and plunging his sharp spurs keenly into her sides, caused her to bawl out with excessive pain, as she darted in her best gallop towards the camp. The officer still plying his spurs, with all his wine on board, finding himself hurried rapidly backwards in spite of his efforts to advance, and hearing the repeated bawlings of the tortured beast, imagined that he was carried off by magic, and roaring out most lustily that the devil had got him—was thus carried into the very centre of the camp.

The sentinel, hearing the noise, discharged their pieces and fled, the alarm guns were fired, the drums beat to arms, and the officers left their quarters and cried "turn out," with all the strength of their lungs. The soldiers started from their sleep as if a ghost had disturbed their dreams, and the whole body running half naked as quick as possible in gallant dishabille, prepared to resist the terrible invader; when, lo! the ludicrous sight soon presented itself to their eyes, of the gallant officer, mounted on a cow, with his face towards her tail—her tongue hanging out—her sides gory with the gouging of the spurs and himself almost deprived of reason, and half petrified with horror.

A loud roar of laughter burst from the assembled band, at the rider and his steed; the whole corps gave three times three cheers as he bolted into camp. He was carried to his quarters in triumph, there to dream of lovers, metamorphoses, backward rides, sternway advances, and thereby garnish his mind with materials for writing a splendid treatise on the novel adventures of a cow ride.

"THE HUG.—The Chattanooga Daily Gazette has the following from a correspondent:

Last summer I was employed as an army detective and scout in Middle Tennessee, the head quarters of the Army of the Cumberland then being at Murfreesboro. On the 4th of June I was ordered by Colonel Truesdale to operate in the vicinity of Stone River Ford, located a few miles from Murfreesboro, on the Lebanyh Pike. Colonel Jarvis, a a most worthy officer, and Colonel of the 13th O. V. I., was in command at the Ford. I soon formed his acquaintance and commenced operations. A few nights afterward I accompanied Captain McColloch, Company A, 13th O. V. I., on a scout, and just before daylight the next morning we halted in front of a Secesh house. I told a negro woman to tell the white folks that a company of Confederates were passing, and in a few moments I saw the old lady and her daughter emerge from the house. They rushed to the gate in their night garments, and saluted me. I introduced myself as Lieutenant Johnson of Alabama, whereupon the fair daughter rushed to me, and I tell you, friend Hood, I never got such an all fired good hug before nor since. It makes me feel pleasant now. Captain McCulloch regretted that he was not in my boots. I find that such squeezes are not to be enjoyed by every one.

A GOOD joke is told of Horne Tooke, whom the Tories in the House of Commons thought to crush, by imposing upon him the humiliating task of begging the House's pardon on his knees. Tooke went on his knees and begged pardon for the offensive expression he had used; but in rising up he knocked the dust off his knees, and exclaimed, loud enough to be heard over the whole House, "It's a dirty House, after all!" Roars of laughter followed this exclamation, and the Tories saw they had failed in their object.

A certain lawyer had his portrait taken in his favorite attitude—standing with his hands in his pockets. His friends and clients went to see it, and everybody exclaimed: "Oh! how like! it's the very picture of him!" An old farmer, however, dissented. "Don't you see," said he, "he has his hand in his own pocket? 'Twould be as like again if he had it in somebody's else."

"MR. POTTER, I have been with you three months, and you have not paid me. I am very poor, and deeply in debt for my board. My landlord says if I do not pay him to-day he will put me in jail."—"Well, my boy," answered Potter, coolly, "you know if he puts you in jail you won't have to pay any board." This must have been consoling.

GOOD BOTTOM.—At a dancing match at Chicago recently, a buxom Dutch girl danced nine hours, constantly, when her partner acknowledged himself fairly beaten and very tired. The damsel then took six glasses of lager ard quietly went to breakfast.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY
RETIRING FROM PRACTICE OF Medicine.

He will receive and attend to all New Cases of an Acute and Chronic Nature, until the 1st day July, 1864.

All cases committed to Dr. Czapkay before the 1st day of July, will be attended to by himself until cured.

All those afflicted, who may desire to secure the services of Dr. Czapkay will apply by letter, or personally, to him before the 1st day of July, 1864, as after that date he will attend only to those cases under treatment.

CARD.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY begs leave to announce to the public, and particularly to his patrons on the Pacific coast that he is about to close the business, with a view of retiring for the present from the arduous labors of his profession.

As it is his intention, during the ensuing fall, to leave the United States, for the purpose of visiting Europe, he will not receive any new patients after the 1st day of July, 1864. Those, therefore, who may desire his services, will apply within a reasonable time.

Doctor Czapkay desires to assure those who are now under his care, that they will continue to receive all the attention which his obligations prescribe and their cases repectively demand.

Those who hold Contracts, guaranteeing a cure are hereby requested to report to Dr. Czapkay, before the 1st day of June, 1864, whether or not they are satisfied that a cure has been effected in their cases respectively. All who do not thus report within the time specified will be regarded and treated as cured.

In taking leave of his patients and the public, Doctor Czapkay desires to express his profound gratitude for the extraordinary patronage bestowed upon him, and the confidence reposed in his professional ability.

During his residence in California, Doctor Czapkay has treated successfully

Upwards of 25,000 Patients.

Which is the best guarantee that his course of treatment has been rewarded with a success at once personally gratifying, and almost unprecedented in the annals of medicine.

Any physician in good standing, who may desire to purchase the interest of Doctor Czapkay in his "Institute," and the good will of his business, may make application and state proposals.

☞ Address Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medica Institute, Sacramento Street, below Montgomery opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co's. office, San Francisco.

To Correspondents.

Patients residing in any part of the State, however distant, who may desire the opinion and advice of Dr. Czapkay on their respective cases, and who think proper to submit a written statement of such, in preference to holding a personal interview, are respectfully assured that their communications will be held most sacred. Dr. L. J. Czapkay takes this opportunity of observing, that all letters are only opened and replied to by himself, and the latter as promptly as possible.

If the case be fully and candidly described, personal communication will be superceded, as instructions for diet, regimen. and the general treatment of the case itself, (including the remedies,) will be forwarded without delay, and in such a manner as to convey no idea of the purport of the letter or parcel so transmitted.

CONSULTATION GRATIS. ☞ Permanent cure guaranteed or no pay.
